Household

Utilities: Update your address with your utility companies, such as water, gas, and electricity.

Internet and TV providers

Home security company: If you have a home security system, update your address with your home security company.

Other

TV Licensing: You must have a TV license if you watch live TV on any device, including a TV, computer, or smartphone.

DVLA: If you own a car, you must update your address with the DVLA.

HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC): If you are employed or self-employed, you must update your address with HMRC.

Student Loans Company: If you have a student loan, you must update your address with the Student Loans Company.

Apps: Update your address on any apps that use your location, such as Google Maps, Waze, and Uber.

Social media: Update your address on your social media accounts.

Loyalty programs: Update your address with any loyalty programs you participate in.

It is a good idea to start changing your address when you have exchanged contracts. This will give your old address time to be updated on all of your accounts. You may also want to send out a change of address announcement to your friends and family.

We hope this checklist is helpful!
